Radio began as a frail, minute idea which has grown and spread until it has enveloped the world, bringing to millions enrichment, happiness, and to a degree, union. Much more will be needed however, to establish a lasting peace on this ever-changing world.

An international feeling of fellowship and good will is essential along with a thorough understanding of world government. It is with these things in mind that the class of '48 departs from Athens High School. We are stepping out into a world that is recovering from two major wars within the last generation and is yet much divided.

The last four years have been very happy ones and, as the future becomes more difficult, this pictorial review, "The Athenian", will recall fondest memories.

In Memoriam

June 27, 1883 -- May 1, 1947

This page is in memory of Dr. Alfred G. Coughlin who was for so many years an active member of the Athens Borough Board of Education and who was its president for a quarter of a century.

A great deal of the building program of the school district and of its steady growth during those years was due to his foresight, planning, and the desire to secure the best in education for those attending the schools of Athens Borough. In recognition of these services the new gymnasium was named in his honor.

In addition to these twenty five years spent in the service of public education, he spent many hours of untiring work in civic affairs in Athens. He was president of the Athens Chamber of Commerce, president of the Athens National Bank, an active member of Protection Hose Company Number One, and during the Second World War, he headed the Medical Board of the Sayre Area Draft Board.

During the many years he practiced medicine in Athens he was an associate member of the staff of the Robert Packer Hospital in Sayre, and he was most highly regarded by his professional associates.

THEODORE ABRAMS

Ted is an international-minded person, and is well-known for his information on world affairs. In his spare time he enjoys exploring the pages of recent books. Ted and the comedians of "Can You Top This" have something in common, as he is a fan for the latest anecdotes. In the future he plans to be a barber. We wish him great success.

Minstrel-12

ARLENE ALLEN

Arlene, one of our girls with an infectious giggle, takes a great interest in sports and in participating in them. Anytime you care to argue, just look for her and she will oblige you by taking the opposite side. Wherever you see Arlene you see Marge, and vice versa.

PHYLLIS ALLEN

You can't keep "Phyl" from laughing at a joke-it's just impossible. Phyllis has a lovely alto voice that has been heard in many of our choral groups. Her fine athletic ability has been the envy of the opposing teams for three years. We are certain that you will be successful in your role as a future housewife, Phyllis.

"Andy" a popular student with all, is an ever smiling red head of patient disposition. He is well known in the field of sports and was chosen all-valley tackle. He is versatile and participates in many activities other than circular. He plans to further his education and major in Phys. Ed.

ERSA BAGGERLY

Ersa is our "outdoor girl". Of all the outdoor sports she prefers target shooting. Her favorite Christmas gift is a 22 Winchester Pump. With her friendly manner and beautiful smile, she is one of our favorites. The diamond on her finger may be some indication of her future career.

Imaginative and creative abilities mark "Dick" as an original personality of worthy character. He is one of the class jesters and is always ready to give or receive a good joke. He will pursue his studies in college at some future date.

LESLIE PALMER

Les is our ambling encyclopedia. He has much dramatic ability as he proved in both the senior and junior plays. Les is extremely fond of music, especially semi-classical. He is also interested in sports. An ardent supporter of all school activities, he is a credit to the class.

CHARLOTTE PARKS

As a result of Chod's reign as queen of the rodeo she was presented with a colt. All of her spare time is spent with Bambi. Charlotte is an honor student and an accomplished musician. She represented us at District Band. Her cheery "Hi" will echo through the halls long after she has left.

VIOLET PELLET

I say "Vi", aren't you glad the Christmas rush is over? I'll bet they were really pushing you at the card factory. Violet is a slender blonde with striking blue eyes who is really a "go getter". She likes many things but uppermost in her mind is talking to Janet.

PRISCILLA POWERS

Paging Priscilla Powers! Hey Joan, where's Percy? Oh, there she is with Janice. Percy is a very vivacious senior with sparkling blue eyes that fairly dance when she laughs. She likes sports very much but literature seems to get her down. Oh well, life's like that.

JANET SCRIVENS

Janet is one of those quiet girls. Ever notice her friendly smile and her natural soft brown curls? She's lovely, she's engaged, and she's from Athens. She and Violet are inseparable both at school and at work where she's employed by the Artistic Card Company in Sayre.

TERRY SHANNON

An outstanding personality plus journalistic ability and rug-cutting antics make Terry the Irish Casanova. This young man of A.H.S., who has wandered nonchalantly through his courses, has ambitions as lofty as his height. We wish him the luck o' the Irish.

"S" has a thatch of blond hair and a pair of devilish blue eyes riding high in the air. That is he's rather tall. Don likes all sports -- particularly football and basketball. He is always ready for fun and frolic. Need we say he's popular. "S" is definitely a credit to the class of "48".

CLIFFORD THOMPSON

Cliff is one of our more ambitious class members always on the job delivering the evening paper. Along with his merry whistle, witty remarks, and friendly attitude toward everyone, he finds time for his favorite pastime, fishing. If Cliff's serene outlook toward life never changes, we are sure he will always be happy.

Auburn hair, dry humor, quiet manner, and intelligent outlook; these qualities among many others are Jack's. He's very industrious both in school, and in extra curricular activities. To Jack, we wish much success in all he undertakes.

ROBERT WANDELL

"Slug", not so nefarious as his nickname would have him be, is a loquacious individual noted for his brilliant oratory in class debates. He is known as a long distance man on the track team and has won numerous honors in this sport. He is a follower of the Ag. course and a member of the F.F.A.

CLARICE WHIPPLE

Clarice is another one of those girls whom we see only in the morning classes. Dark eyes, pleasant laugh, and chummy attitude combine to form her fine personality. Wait 'til next year

We are now just one place from the top of the ladder. We are still underclassmen but this is our last dress rehearsal before we step into the spotlight for our final performance.

We gave two star performances this year—the Prom which is in honor of our star performers and our annual junior play entitled, "Life of the Party."

Our technical advisors this year were: Mrs. Grace Mary Alger, Miss Dorothy Jean Radziak, and Mr. James Pruyne.

Our class leaders were: Thomas Gorrell. Bernard Sherbo. Sibyl Brennan and Mary Lou Collins.

We Character Actors

As this year's character actors, we are now in the large network of WAHS as the up and coming stars. To make ourselves worthy when we are announced as "Sophs", we have begun the year with determination.

We were introduced into one of the greatest programs with the annual Sophomore Welcoming Dance, sponsored by the upper classmen, the juniors and seniors.

Our class directors, David Rhodes, Rodney Horton, Alice Halstead, and Duane Gable led us throughout the year. Our Thespian Club dramatized the comedy, "A Quiet Christmas." We also entered into other clubs such as Tri-Hi-Y, Domecon, and G.A.C.

We, the class of 1950, are glad to be in this great network of WAHS and hope to leave behind us a great reputation.

Don't miss us Juveniles

Broadcasting now from downstairs, we bring you the seventh and eighth grades. We're sure that all the seventh graders are enjoying their first year in junior high school and are looking forward to the coming years. The three instructors, Mrs. Jones, Miss Smith, and Mrs. Burns are doing a fine job with their pupils.

Each of the eighth grade home rooms has a club. They elect their own officers, and have meetings. This is a very excellent idea, for it develops such traits as leadership and initiative among its members. Mr. Evans, Miss Lunger, and Mrs. Baxter are also doing very fine work with their students.

We hope to see all you eighth graders in the upper halls next fall.

The Thespians is the name given to a well-known dramatic club of our high school composed only of Sophomore boys and girls. Each year they present several plays which are always greatly enjoyed by the students. This club discovers talent and gives its members stage experience for plays in their junior and senior years.

This year the club is under the able supervision of Miss Stevens and Miss Bean. Two excellent plays have been presented, "A Quiet Christmas", and "Thanks to George Washington." The latter, in accordance with a previous agreement, was given at Waverly High School, also.

We, the students, would like to extend our congratulations to the Thespians for their fine work and we wish them many more years of success.

Music hath charm

These various groups

Turning to this station, we find that the Senior High Girls' Chorus and Triple Trio are about to present their program. As we listen we hear the pleasant three part harmony of thirty tones. Now the popular Triple Trio blend their matched voices to give a selection. Both of these groups prove that "Music hath charms—."

The Mixed Chorus is one of the newest organizations here in the studio. It is composed of both boys and girls. They provide excellent entertainment for our radio programs. In addition to these, they always have an engagement to sing at our annual commencement program.

Of entertaining music

Looney tunes and merry melodies float upon the air. Many people have heard and enjoyed the music of both band and orchestra. It is the purpose of the band and orchestra to stimulate the interest of students in music. Every year we lose some members and gain others, and thus the band goes on. It is a trying task to members and especially the leader to have rehearsals, for there is someone missing every time.

The band made a very good showing at football games and parades. The band concert was given in the spring and I am sure it proved to be as good as at football games.

I am sure we are all grateful to Mr. Coccagnia for the fine work he has done in getting the band in shape. We feel that the band and orchestra have done a wonderful job of representing our school this year.

Quiet please, we're on the air. This is Station WAHS reporting from the control room. Our versatile director, Paul Lambert and his assistant, Robert Southee, are in charge of this program. This capable group has planned and carried forth many activities for our benefit this year. Having conducted an open forum assembly program, the council has brought about the establishment of a second honor roll system. This is only one of the many things they have accomplished. Dances have been held and many school improvements are being installed. Meetings are conducted every Wednesday under the supervision of Mr. Hazard, their advisor. This is your roving reporter bringing to a close this brief summary of events here in the control room of station WAHS in Athens High School.

Short wave brings you

Buenas dias ustedes. The foreign language clubs of Station WAHS greet you. We wish to tell you a little about ourselves, and encourage future study of the Spanish language.

The Spanish Clubs consist of four groups, two groups that are Spanish two and two that are Spanish one. Each club has its president and other officers, and meets but once a month. At each meeting the students converse in Spanish, and plan all activities for the future. Of course now and then a Spanish word is forgotten, but we can always depend upon our excellent instructor, Miss Stevens, to keep the meeting going.

The activities of the clubs are many and quite varied. We sponsored a movie, "Young Mr. Lincoln", and it was well accepted by our classmates. A Spanish dinner with all the trimmings is our most anticipated event of the year. We know it will be a success for all the past activities have been through the untiring work of its members.

The Spanish two clubs have thoroughly enjoyed participating in every activity and they wish to say Adios with the hope that all future Spanish students continue to enjoy and benefit from this language that will make us better neighbors with the world.

HI-Y

In this studio we find the Hi-Y. The leaders are, Pres.-Paul Lambert, first Vice Pres.-Edward Tracy second Vice Pres.-George Carl, Sec.-Don Sumner and Treas.-Paul Rae.

The four planks of the Hi-Y platform which are the basis of the organization are, clean sportsman-ship, clean speech, clean living and clean scholarship.

The chief work of the club is to help with assembly programs. The organization has already put on one program and they are planning more for the future.

Not neglected for both

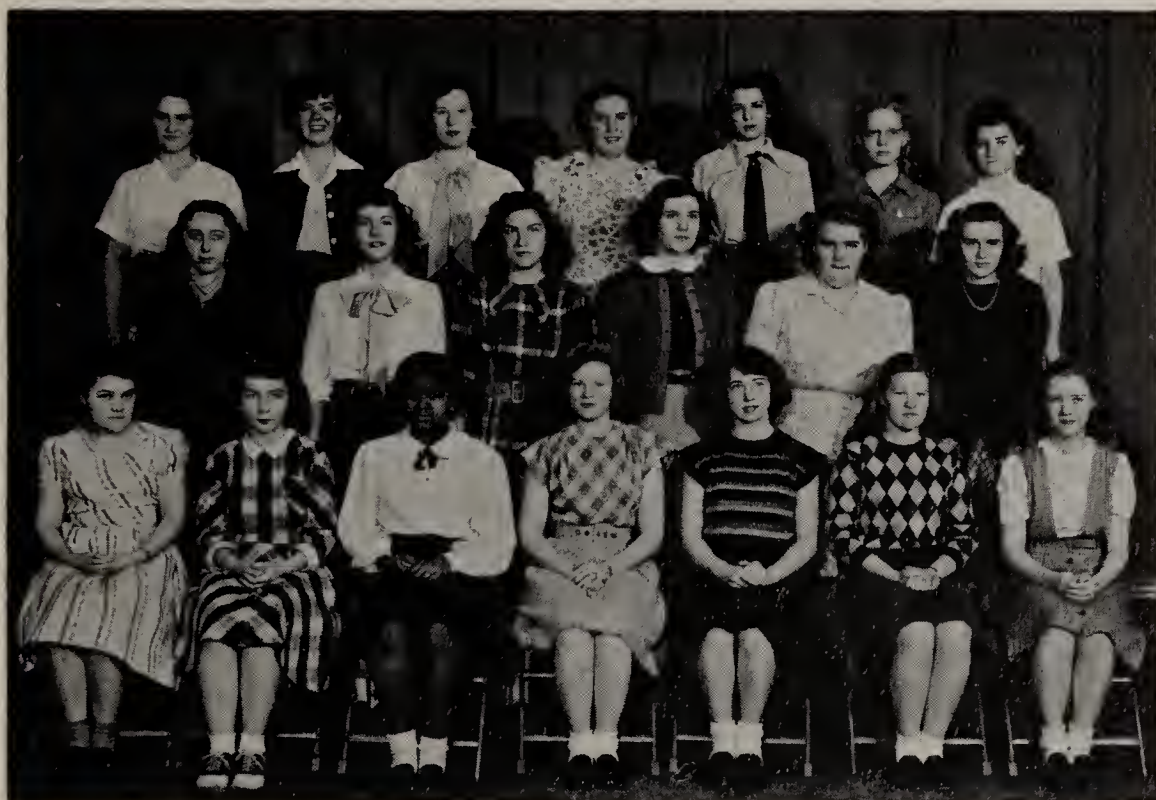

We in the studio are a charitable organization.

Our cast consists of eighty girls who took part in the following program.

In September we organized and chose our capable leaders: president-Peggy Bourdette, recording secretary-Janice Twigg, corresponding secretary-Mary Lou Collins, treasurer-Doris Anne Cook, and chairman of social activities-Priscilla Powers. October brought about the Halloween Frolic for the grades and a one act mystery drama by senior girls. In December we sponsored a gala Christmas banquet, entertaining faculty and Hi-Y.

Being a charitable club, we gave gifts to the child Welfare groups in Towanda, and a gift of money to the Salvation Army.

At the controls are Miss Reagan and Miss Stevens, our councilors.

Turn your dial to WAHS and listen to news about good food and beautiful clothes, sponsored by the Domecon Club.

The club is an organization of girls having at least one year of home economics. Its purpose is to promote good manners and cooperation.

The meetings are held monthly in the home economics room. They are conducted by the president, Vivian Maslin. The other officers are: vice president, Barbara Russell; secretary, Marcella Russell; and treasurer, Lucy Mae Bidlack. There are eighteen members in the club this year.

The club belongs to the national organization of F.H.A. (Future Homemakers of America), and also joined the county chapter of F.H.A. in December.

During the fall, the girls sell soft drinks at football games. Each year the club members decorate the senior hallway at Christmas, and hold an annual dance in the spring.

All the F.H.A. girls are very grateful to Mrs. McDonald, and know that the experience they have received will be of great aid to them in the near future.

This is the Athens chapter of the Future Farmers of America broadcasting. Our club has been a member of the National F.F.A. since 1935. Our purposes are the improvement of agriculture and the development of efficiency and cooperation.

We have forty members this year. Our officers are as follows: president, Neal Halstead; vice president Don Robinson; secretary, Herbert Morley; treasurer, La Vern Callear; reporter, Scott von Wolffradt, and farm watchdog, Robert Twigg. Our adviser is Mr. van Scoten, agriculture instructor.

Since our club was organized, nine boys have won the Keystone Farmers degree, and two have gone on to win the American Farmers degree. Winners of the Keystone Farmers degree are: Howard Allis and Robert Davis, 1939, Donald Page and Theodore Macafee, 1940, Daryl Parks, 1941, Lyle Carpenter and Ralph Page, 1945, Herbert Halstead and Fred von Wolffradt, 1947. Winners of the American Farmers degree are Howard Allis and Theodore Macafee.

In 1941, Theodore Macafee was elected secretary of the Pennsylvania Association of F.F.A. Last year Fred von Wolffradt played with the Pennsylvania State F.F.A. band. Last fall, Arthur Cole won an essay contest on the subject of "Milk and Its Benefits."

This year, thirty of us went to the state fair at Bloomsburg. In January, seven boys went to the state farm show at Harrisburg.

Our broadcast must end now, but we hope you have enjoyed our program as much as we enjoy our club.

Now we present the Teaogan edited by the talent scouts of the junior class. The Teaogan was started by the members of the junior class under the supervision of Mr. Bresee, their faculty adviser. They used the Indian as their theme throughout the magazine. Poems, essays and short stories contributed by the junior and senior high students were its chief features.

This year the Teaogan has increased in volume and size. Three issues were presented; one in the fall one in the winter, and one in the spring. Thomas Gorrell was elected, by the junior class, to be editor. The faculty advisers this year were Mr. Bresee and Miss Radziak. Many new articles of interest such as interviews, previews of coming events, quizzes, and questions and answers on what the student thinks, were found in these issues.

It is the hope of the junior class of 1948 that as the Teaogan is passed on to other junior classes, it will prosper and become so good that all Athens High students will make it their favorite magazine.

Athens Plays Sayreites to Scoreless Tie

Capacity Crowd Sees Senior Play Given in Athens

A capacity audience of nearly 400 filled the Athens High School auditorium Saturday night to see the senior class present their annual play, "Come Rain or Shine," a fun-filled comedy in three acts by Marjane and Joseph Hayes.

Lois DeFrahm was self-assured and convincing in the role of Jacqueline Grayson, a young college girl who suffers the pains of growing up during an eventful summer vacation at the lake-shore. Margaret Bourdette, as Mrs. Lillian Grayson, was a typical mother, sympathetic and understanding, and Leslie Palmer, portraying the harassed father of the unpredictable Grayson household, handled a difficult role with ease and assurance.

Paul Lambert was at home in the part of Glenn Grayson, Jr., the adolescent son who adds to the general hilarity and confusion when he develops a sudden "crush" on the spoiled and self-centered Rosemary March (aptly portrayed by Charlotte Parks). Rosemary is the granddaughter of Julia March, owner of the newspaper of which Mr. Grayson is editor. Edward Tracy, playing the determined and good-looking young theater director for whose manly charms both Rosemary and Jacqueline fall, was forceful and handsome indeed. Gloria DuPuis turned in realistic performance as the tyrannical Julia March.

Other members of the cast who gave fine performances were Ruth Barber, as Irene Holden; Janice Twigg, as Agnes Holden; Vivian Maslin, as Anne Barry; Mary Jeanne Turk, as Ella Stone; Dorothy Johnson, as Mrs. Sparks; Kenneth Wolfe, as Dick Clements; Joan Greene, as Helen; and Donald Sumner, as Fred.

Besides to Director Irving Hazard and his cast, much of the success of the production may be attributed to the hard work of technical staff, including Macafee, business manager; Cilla Powers, stage manager; and Leavenworth, lights and tains; Donald Sumner, ties; Arthur Nichols, pr Miss Winifred Reagan, Mrs. Marian McDonald, Charles Thorp, scene ward Tracy and M old programs.

The score was 0-0, but an inspired Athens high school team won a moral victory over highly favored Sayre last night in Lockhart Street Bowl before the largest crowd of the season, approximately 3,600 of whom paid to get in the gates.

14 Pupils Join Athens Hi-Y Club

Fourteen students in Athens high school were initiated into membership of the school's senior Hi-Y club at an assembly candle light service Friday afternoon in the main building auditorium.

They are: David Arnold, Richard Tracy, William Baker, Gary Lynch, Duane Gable, Richard Eike, Kenneth Rogers, Howard DeFrahm, Kenneth Roberts, Jack Williams, Vance Hinkson, Robert Hopkins, Caesar Garrigas and Carl von Wolffradt.

The four major plans of the club are sportsmanship, clean speech, clean habits and scholarship.

Officers of the club are: Paul Lambert, president; Edward Tracy, first vice-president; George Corl, second vice-president; Donald Sumner, secretary; and Paul Rae, treasurer. They presided at the assembly program and were assisted by Clifford Thompson, Leslie Palmer, John Black and Bernard Sherbo.

Clyde Breese of the high school faculty was in charge.

the pair, two of the in the Valley moved their respective teams sidelines as the referee em the time honored ad- tion, "break clean and come fighting," and a moment later ne battle was joined.

I Hate To Do This But...

There was a picture there just before game time, if a photog owned a camera that could mirror personal feeling. Tom Jones, still on the mend from a service-con- nected malady, sat beside Johnny Childs, both staring moodily at center-floor where in a moment, their two teams would clash. Friends off the basketball court, the approaching fray was crucial to both.

Grid Lettermen Given Sweaters At Athens High

Sweaters and letter certificates went to 20 Athens high school boys of the 1947-48 football squad as well as the manager and five cheer leaders, at a special assembly yesterday afternoon in the main building auditorium.

Seniors who received them are: Paul Lambert, Leon Fice, Jack Anderson, Richard Jackson, Laurence Canavan, Donald Sumner and Edward Tracy. Juniors were: Lavern Callear, John Black, Robert

Athens Classes Elect Officers

The annual elections for class officers of Athens high school were held today, highlighted by a highly contested race for the office of vice-president of school.

ates for senior class of- ere: President, John Mac- and Kenneth Wolfe with the e-presidency going to the second choice for president; secretary, Janice Twigg; treasurer, Clifford Thompson and Mary Jeanne Turk; student council, Ruth Barber and Gerald Wilson.

Junior class candidates were: President, Thomas Gorell and Bernard Sherbo; secretary, Sibyl Brennan and Ellen Hammond; treasurer, Mary Lou Collins and Hampton Huff, Jr.; student council, Doris Anne Cook, Jean Johnston, Marcella Russell, and Vance Hinkson.

Candidates for sophomore offices were: President, Barbara Cahill, Robert Blend, Duane Gable, and David Rhoads; secretary, Alice Halstead; Patricia Zimmerman, Jessie Mostein; treasurer, Rodney Horton and Donna Shaffer; student council, Herethal Callear, Inga Isbell, Ruth Baggerly, Alona Fasset, Wilma Fanning, Joanne Keeler, David Arnold, Francis Storelli, Kenneth Roberts, and Robert Hopkins.

"How about it, John?" asked Frankly. The head Athenian looked up. "I'd rather win this one than any other, Frankly," he answered slowly, "except for one thing; I hate to beat Tom! Then, as he cast a look in the general direction of lanky Lou Beverly, added, "course, it'll be tough!"

Clark, Donald Robinson, Vince Hinkson, George Corl, James Bradley, Bernard Sherbo, Thomas Gorrell and Thomas Burns. Sophomores were: David Arnold, Francis Storelli, Edward Rogers and Kenneth Rogers.

Hampton Huff, Jr., team manager also received a sweater and letter as did cheer leaders Joan Green, Jean Johnson, Joan Palmer, Salley Zacharias and Amy Struble.

Coach John Childs presented the sweaters and High School Principal Irving W. Hazard presented the letter certificates.

Following presentation of awards there was a pep rally, the cheers as a starter for the ens-Mansfield basketball Mansfield tonight. Nearly all who received sweaters of royal white over on enwoven in in gold. O is the first year of the left es for as ys have en- nile in high

Athens Students Select Officers For School Term

Robert Southree was elected vice-president of the Athens high school Student Council at annual elections held Tuesday. He will serve for the school term, and succeed Paul Lambert as president next year.

Officers of the senior class chosen yesterday were: John Macafee, president; Kenneth Wolfe, vice-president; Janice Twigg, secretary; Mary Jeanne Turk, treasurer; Ruth Barber and Gerald Wilson, student council.

Elected by the junior class for offices were: Thomas Gorrell, president; Bernard Sherbo, vice-president; Sibyl Brennan, secretary; Mary Lou Collins, treasurer; Doris Anne Cook and Vance Hinkson, student council.

Officers of the class of 1950 chosen at the polls were: David Rhoads, president; Duane Gable, vice-president; Alice Halstead secretary; Rodney Horton, treasurer; Joanne Keeler and David Arnold, two-year term, Herethal Callear and Robert Hopkins, one-year term, student council.

Elections were held following a stirring campaign by candidates in the school. They are held each year on the same day as the general elections.

F. S. turned to the Jones boy. "How about you, Tom, how do you feel about this one?"

"Ditto" countered the likable mentor of the Red and Blue: "I just hope we can get hot!" Then with a sigh as he watched the Athens captain warming up, "But that Lambert! Ooooh!"
